Seeing is Believing

Pratiksha Todkar

Balmitra and English Trainee Teacher,
Cosmo Foundation, Aurangabad.

Our visit to Gujarat was truly inspiring. I learnt how to do analysis of assessment results and accordingly do lesson planning, gathered innovative ideas for teaching materials. I was astonished by Sonal Vasava, an English trainee teacher from Karjan. She is 10th pass but she has mastered English videos, built conceptual clarity so well and guides many English teachers like me who have done formally B.Ed. The efficient use of Excel program by Balmitras at Karjan and hands-on experience in video shooting added to our learning. I myself gave demo lecture on camera and it has opened my eyes towards perfection and self-improvement. Sangeeta Patel, a Balmitra who is physically challenged runs classes with extraordinary zeal and takes care of knowledge documentation, dissemination and induction of new Balmitras. The strong teacher-student bond in Gujarat left an indelible impression on us and we need to walk extra miles to enhance the output.

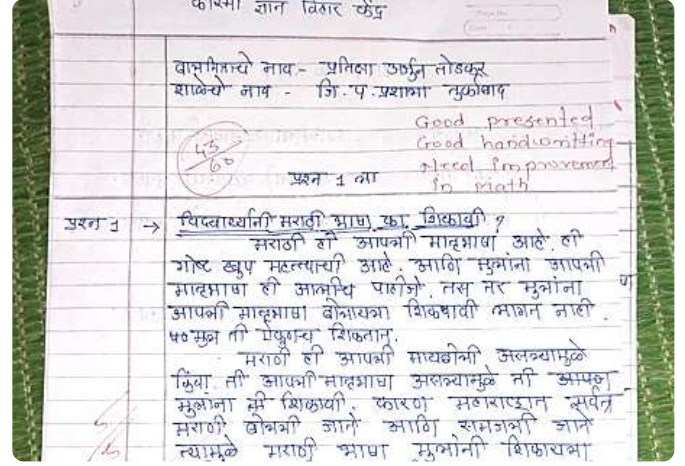

Application of AI and Google tools

A comprehensive "Computer Training Program" for CF Balmitras was organized at Aurangabad. Through targeted sessions covering technical skills, content writing, AI tools, basic computer skills, and Google Tools, we empowered our teachers to create engaging and interactive learning environments.

Competency Mapping of Cosmo Teachers:

An Intensive assessment of Balmitra's, Computer, and English teachers was organized before the beginning of the new academic session. Systematic skill gaps identified from each individual teachers and planned their sessions of skill enhancement
